

The tragedy behind this lovely and perfectly shaped hoof, standing as erect and bold as the Supercorium within, is that the horse was put down needlessly because of his feet

Gauging with HMR reveals H° (52°) and H°TL (2 3/4 in.) to be perfectly natural and within wild horse data ranges